

Hello everybody

Well the last month certainly brought Europe to a standstill with the volcano. Whoever would have thought how much of a standstill the world became? It certainly created some headaches. How this event is going to affect airfares in the not too distant future I don't know. There are rumours of airfares going up because of the massive losses the airlines were experiencing but I think at this stage it is anybody's guess.

American Express and Qantas are also changing a lot of their affiliations with the various credit cards. Each Amex card seems to be different so if you have an AMEX card and you are wishing to transfer points across to Qantas, I would strongly recommend you give AMEX a call to see what changes there will be with your particular card.

Phuket has some great offers at the moment and combined with some of the Jetstar flight deals, the costs are fantastically economical. Bali and Malaysia also offer some great combinations so now is the time to take advantage of them. USA is also a great place to consider with the exchange rate being so favourable at the moment

There are still some cabins available for the cruises leaving Fremantle in July. It is a beautiful time to get out of the cold weather and enjoy the tropical warmth of the Straights of Singapore.

Call one of our team for further information and assistance on these combination specials and other options currently available

Iceland's Eyjafjallajokull volcano provided spectacular photography, but was also the cause of a lot of heartache

Luxury Armani Hotel opens in Dubai

A LUXURY hotel crafted by designer Giorgio Armani has opened as the first landmark tenant in the world's tallest skyscraper, hoping to entice the wealthy Gulf region's image-conscious big spenders with Italian runway style.

The 160-room Armani Hotel Dubai is a welcome bit of good news for Dubai's leaders after the troubled debut of the 828 meter-high Burj Khalifa in January. An elevator malfunction forced a two-month closure of the spire's observation deck - the only part of the tower open to the public.

The Italian designer was on hand for the opening ceremony, which was delayed a week because of the travel chaos caused by the Icelandic volcano. He said his goal was to build a comfortable and stylish hotel that would leave an impression.

"I wanted something very important, something to be remembered," Armani said, dressed in a dark T-shirt and white trousers. "Something not just for the present, but beyond."

Armani's Dubai outpost relies on sleek, minimalist detail and earth tones like rich cocoa-coloured wood panelling throughout. It stretches from the base of the tapering, metal-and-glass Burj through the eighth floor, then skips some two dozen stories before continuing on floors 38 and 39. It includes multiple restaurants, a spa and an outdoor swimming pool.

The luxury doesn't come cheap. The least expensive rooms offered at the moment go for more than $820 a night - before tax. High-end suites - which boast a living room, dining room, walk-in closet, study and full service bar - cost about $2385 a night.

"What they're after is the aspirational traveller. It's trying to make a statement to a certain type of luxury consumer," said Alex Kyriakidis, who heads the global tourism division at professional services firm Deloitte.

"Will that work? Time will tell."

The opening comes as Dubai's economy is reeling from the global economic downturn, which has revealed deep debt problems in the city-state.

Many of Dubai's high-end hotels were forced to slash rates to cope with the slump, though business has begun to improve in recent months, according to Deloitte.

Dubai's newest five-star hotel is the first part of the 828m Burj Khalifa to open to the public since the 124th-floor observation deck welcomed its first visitors in January.

The lookout unexpectedly shut down a month after the opening when an elevator malfunctioned. Emaar never disclosed details of what happened, which it attributed to unexpectedly high traffic and electrical problems. The deck quietly reopened earlier this month.

The Burj Khalifa rises more than 160 stories, though the exact number of habitable floors is not known.

Much of the building remains empty as work continues inside.

Armani's hotel will soon have more competition. Rival Italian fashion house Gianni Versace Spa plans to open its own luxury hotel in Dubai later this year. Its claim to fame: an artificially cooled beach designed to keep sunbathing guests from getting too uncomfortable in the Gulf's scorching summer heat.

River cruising—a better way to explore

River cruising is, quite simply, the best way to travel through many of the world's most fascinating places. Comfortable and convenient, it offers a greater variety of destinations than you could encounter any other way—and lets you get in-depth exposure to the culture and history of each region. Both experienced and first-time travelers have discovered the joys of river cruising, making it the fastest-growing segment of the travel industry.

See the World's Great Cities

Paris, Vienna, Budapest...because so many cities and towns developed along waterways, they were literally made to be accessible by river. Some of these cities are just not available to ocean cruisers, and bus passengers spend precious hours on the highway, checking in and out of hotels. River cruising brings you more of these destinations than you could see any other way.

Hassle-Free Travel

After boarding the ship, unpack—just once—in your spacious river-view stateroom. Relax in comfort for the duration of the cruise. No need to worry about maps, traffic congestion or the many other hassles of traveling by bus or train. A river cruise is a stress-free way to see the best that your destination has to offer.

New Scenery—All Day, Every Day

Enjoy breathtaking scenery from just about everywhere on the ship—in the bar, restaurant or lounge (all with panoramic views), on the sun deck with fresh air or from the privacy of your stateroom. And, river cruise vessels keep moving, so you see new vistas and explore new destinations throughout the day, every day. Our ships often travel at night, so you can wake up in an exciting new place each morning, with no effort on your part.

The Heart of Your Destination

Unlike ocean cruises, rivers provide easy access to city centers. Sail directly to the heart of every destination and dock in the middle of town. Walk right off the ship and join the day's activities. You spend less time getting there—and more time being there.

A More Intimate Experience

Because our ships are designed to accommodate between 150 and 300 guests, it is easy to make new friends. Share a drink with the couple you met on the day's tour, or dine with interesting people in the open-seating restaurant. And you can forget about waiting in long lines to embark, disembark or have a meal.

Culture & History Everywhere

Walk through an open air architecture museum in the middle of a Russian lake; watch the artists at work in a Meissen porcelain ware studio; hear a concert of ancient bronze bells in Wuhan. Such unforgettable experiences can be yours on a river cruise—and you are unlikely to reach these places any other way.

Travel Your Way

Enjoy the guided walks, in-depth tours and excursions planned for you in each destination—or sightsee on your own, with time allocated for independent activities.

Smooth Sailing

The flat-bottomed shape of river cruise ships ensures a safe and smooth ride without any worries about motion sickness. No need to spend days “getting your sea legs” as with ocean cruising—which means more time to really enjoy your vacation.

2010 Sale—2-for-1 cruise pricing plus complimentary wine with dinner.
Also receive $500 per couple off international air—see details below.
Prices shown are per person. Offer expires May 28, 2010.

Winter on the Danube

This charming 10-day journey takes you from Nuremberg to Budapest along the celebrated Danube River—during the holiday season. Tour cities and towns in Germany and Austria, visiting Christmas markets as you sail. Celebrate Christmas Eve in Vienna, and on Christmas Day take a magical ride to the famous Vienna Woods. Then, continue to Budapest where you see both sides of Hungary's gracious capital, so beautiful in winter. An unforgettable journey through the area where so many Christmas traditions began.

DAY 1 Nuremberg

Welcome to Nuremberg, Bavaria's second largest city. We will meet you at the airport and transfer you to your ship.* After boarding, you have free time to explore the city on your own—or join our “welcome walk” to stretch your legs and start getting oriented. (D)

DAY 2 Nuremberg & Main-Danube Canal

Take a morning tour of historical sites of Nuremberg, ending at the Main Market Square in the Old Town area enclosed by ancient city walls. Here you encounter the first of our Christmas markets.

Lunch is served aboard; you are free to return to the Christmas market or visit some of Nuremberg's many other attractions before we depart late this afternoon. Dinner is served aboard as we begin sailing through the locks that comprise the Main-Danube Canal. The canal, an engineering marvel stretching 106 miles from Bamberg on the Main River to Kelheim on the Danube, enables river travel from the North Sea to the Black Sea. Cruise through the night. (B, L, D)

DAY 3 Regensburg

Enjoy scenic cruising through the morning, docking just after lunch. Meet your guide dockside for a walking tour through the scenic town of Regensburg, considered one of Europe's best-preserved medieval cities. See one of the largest groupings of 13th- and 14th-century church spires, towers and patrician houses north of the Alps. You also encounter the 12th-century Old Stone Bridge, St. Peter's Cathedral and a number of idyllic courtyards. We finish our walk at Regensburg's lively Christmas market, where you can while away the afternoon, or take in other Regensburg attractions if you prefer—perhaps visiting the Alte Wurstküche, Germany's oldest restaurant.

Rejoin your ship for dinner; take an evening stroll if you like, as we will depart late in the evening. (B, L, D)

DAY 4 Passau

Arrive early morning in Passau, at the confluence of the Inn, Ilz and Danube Rivers. Your guided walk along the town's narrow streets takes you through the Old Town and past traditional patrician houses. You also tour the Passau Glass Museum, which displays the most extensive collection of Bohemian glass objets d'art in the world—in styles from Baroque to modern. We end our tour at the Passauer Christkindlmarkt, counting down the Advent at the foot of the magnificent baroque St. Stephan's Cathedral.

Lunch and dinner are served aboard; you are free to come and go as you please for the remainder of the day and evening, as we remain docked overnight. Explore the town or do some more shopping at the Christmas Market. Be sure to try some delicious Glühwein, Bratwurst and Lebkuchen! (B, L, D)

DAY 5 Linz

Sail along the Danube this morning to Linz and disembark after lunch for a city tour. Linz also has a Christmas Market, laid out in the main square; it is beautifully lit and features a motif of angels everywhere. Linz also offers perhaps the most charming Christmas market of all: a fairy-tale Christmas setting for children in the Volksgarten(public garden).

Dine aboard, but return to the city to see the magnificent "Foam of the Danube" light show that transforms the streets and Nibelungen Bridge. Remain docked overnight. (B, L, D)

DAY 6 Melk & Dürnstein

Take in the magnificent Wachau Valley scenery as you sail through the morning, arriving at Melk after lunch. Join a guided tour through the ornate interior of a baroque gem of architecture—the Benedictine abbey at Melk. See its elaborate frescoes and admire the library's extensive collection of medieval manuscripts; enjoy the garden courtyard and the terrace views. Rejoin your ship and enjoy the brief journey to Dürnstein over dinner. This evening you have the opportunity to taste some of the area's local wines. (B, L, D)

DAY 7 Vienna

After breakfast, begin your half-day city tour. See some of Vienna's gracious architecture, then ride along the beautiful Ringstrasse with sights including the Opera House, Stadtpark and Hofburg Theater. You then see St. Stephan's Cathedral. After lunch aboard, the afternoon is yours to further explore this city on your own. Shop along the Kärtnerstrasse or take an optional excursion to Schönbrunn Palace, home of Maria Theresa and summer residence of the Habsburgs. Dinner is served aboard. This evening there is an optional concert of music by Mozart and Strauss. Midnight mass services are available for those who wish to attend. (B, L, D)

DAY 8 Vienna

Today, celebrate Christmas in Vienna, Austria. After a holiday breakfast, take a leisurely ride to the famous Vienna Woods, a tree-lined area of the lower Alpine slopes that inspired Johann Strauss to write his cheerful, lilting masterpiece, "Tales From the Vienna Woods." Lunch is served aboard. This afternoon you can see some of the sights of Vienna, decked out for the holidays, or attend church services. We depart just before dinner. (B, L, D)

DAY 9 Budapest

Arrive in Budapest, Hungary's capital, just after breakfast. Take a panoramic city tour through the more modern "Pest" side of the
